

QuickMobile Appoints Andrew Oh as VP Finance

VANCOUVER, B.C. — May 12, 2016 — QuickMobile, the global leading provider of mobile event apps, today announced the expansion of its executive team with the appointment of Andrew Oh as VP Finance. Oh will be responsible for overseeing QuickMobile's finance, accounting, HR and IT teams.

"We couldn't be more thrilled to welcome Andrew to the QuickMobile team," said David Smith, CEO of QuickMobile. "Andrew's extensive background, leadership skills and proven track record of success is a perfect fit for us as we enter the next stage of growth."

Oh brings more than 14 years of financial and accounting leadership experience to QuickMobile, including his latest role as Director of Finance at PlentyOfFish, a global online dating company acquired by Match.com for a headlining US$575 million. He has an extensive background in corporate finance, investment and operations in addition to advising private equity and strategic corporate buyers on due diligence and financial reporting aspects of M&A transactions in Deloitte's Mergers & Acquisitions Services Practice in New York.

"I am excited to be joining a company that is redefining the future of mobile event app technology and the way Fortune 100 enterprises engage in meetings and events," said Oh. "I look forward to ensuring QuickMobile extends our leadership position as the definitive mobile event app platform of choice for enterprises worldwide."

Andrew is a Chartered Accountant and holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Simon Fraser University.
